

Times

Bipul Banerjee
Sr. General Manager-Sales
Gujarat, Ahmedabad

There are times,
When you want to be left alone
When you want to mute everything
When you want to zip your expressions
When you seek solace in darkness

There are times when
Nothing is going your way
Nothing is moving forward
Nothing is in a positive frame
Nothing seems to be working

There are times when
You wish to erase everything
You wish to run away
You wish to cocoon yourself
You wish to keep bleeding

There are times when
You are supposed to swim against the tide
Climb uphill with a broken limb
Keep breathing in thin air
Keep your nose just out of water

These times were not there before
They will not remain for ever
When they pass and fade
What only matters is
What lessons you have learnt
@ 'dusk'...
