

Womb or Tomb?

Entering into life
Everyone overwhelmed
I began to breathe
My heart said lub dub
Then came the day of the sonogram
The lady said “congrats, it’s a baby girl,”
A horrific scene
Dad yelling
Along with Mom I cried
A womb into tomb
From spring to autumn
A fertile land into barren one
No food
Dawn turned into new moon day
A gang of assaulters with weapons
My inside voice
Mom, please just listen
Feel me from your bosom
That day you gave me life
And this day you are opting
A seed - the foundation of human race
Is just a vestigial organ?
Human kind won’t breed
The whole earth will convert into a graveyard
Bye forever.
I hope you’re happy.

It's Possible

Oh! man,
You can,
Don't be in the den,
Always be on the brave lane,
Just feel free,
Look there is a sea,
Of your virtues and skill,
You just need drill,
Don't suppress your expressions,
Get ready for the inventions,
Confidence, love, courage are true comrades,
Never keep fear in your head,
Don't feel shy,
You can climb high,
Do your best,
With the zest,
After the deep dark night,
Dawn is always bright,
Triumph succeeds the fear,
Our destination is very near.
